

SOCIETY

A FASHIONABLE wedding of the winter in which society here is much interested will be celebrated in Holy Trinity Church, at 6 o'clock on Saturday evening, January 14, when Miss Lily Montgomery West, daughter of the late Montgomery West, of this city, will become the bride of David English Dillman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Dillman, of Germantown, Pa.

The bride will be given away by her uncle, George L. Brown, of Philadelphia, in the absence of her brother, George M. West, and will be attended by her cousin, Miss Mary Stuart Cooke, of Roanoke, as maid of honor. Four other girls will hold the ribbons, and Joseph M. Shumaker, of Germantown, will be the groom's best man.

The bridesmaids included, Dr. Jay Whitman, of Germantown; Frederick Thirt, of Norfolk; Cushman Hartwell, William B. Norris, Litch Jones, Miss Shumaker, Frederick Thomas, all of Philadelphia; Hugh P. Rose, of this city.

A number of prominent guests from a distance will attend the ceremony, which will be one of the leading society events of the winter, and a great many affairs will be given this week in celebration of the bride-elect and her attendants.

Visiting in New York.
Miss Ida Mason left last week for New York, where she expects to spend the month of January as the guest of her brother, James Randolph Mason.

Miss Mason will probably visit friends in Philadelphia and Washington before returning to her home in this city.

To Visit in Washington.
Miss Gay Montague will leave next Wednesday for Washington, where she will be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Scott for a week. Miss Montague spent several months this summer in Europe traveling with her father, former Governor A. J. Montague, and was with him in Brussels at the meeting of the last Peace conference. Mr. and Mrs. Scott were in Brussels at the same time. A number of handsome affairs will be given for Miss Montague during her stay in Washington, where her hosts are prominent in diplomatic circles.

Guest of Mrs. Caperton.
Miss Sallie Carr Caperton, of Charleston, West Virginia, is spending some time in Richmond as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Caperton, 306 Howitzer Place.

Miss Caperton is a very charming and sociable young woman, and her visit has been one of the most interesting of the season.

Meet Monday.
St. John's Circle of the King's Daughters will meet Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. J. T. Bailey, 209 East Broad Street. A full attendance is desired.

Dance at the Hermitage.
Misses Rosalie and Marie Harwood were hostesses of a very pretty dance given at the Hermitage Golf Club last evening.

The dancing was most enjoyable, and the music was furnished by the orchestra. The guests were most numerous, and the evening was a very successful one.

Celebrate Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Upperville, Va., January 7.—At the Baptist parsonage in Upperville on the afternoon of December 15, Dr. Isaac H. Lake and his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Lake, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. It was an occasion of great interest to the people of upper Fauquier and Loudoun, to whom Dr. Lake has ondeared himself by thirty-nine years of faithful and loving service as pastor and friend. The lower rooms of the parsonage were prettily decorated, and the happy couple was led into the parlor by the venerable Dr. William E. Hatcher, a life-long friend, who made some very appropriate remarks, referring to the days when he and Dr. Lake were rivals for the hand of the blushing bride, then Miss Marable, of Sussex county, Dr. and Mrs. Lake were the recipients of many handsome presents.

Although Dr. Lake, who easily ranks as one of the ablest preachers in the State, is a native of Fauquier, he came to the Upperville Church from Dumfries, where in his early manhood he served for nine years as president of the Roanoke Female Institute,

Can Cancer Be Cured?
It Can.

The record of the Kellam Hospital is without parallel in history, having cured to stay cured permanently, without the use of the knife, over 90 per cent. of the many hundreds of sufferers from cancer which it has treated during the past fifteen years of its existence.

We have been endorsed by the Senate and Legislature of Virginia.
